AND BE THANKFUL.
Colossians 3:15

Happy October, WCAS Families! I hope that this month has you feeling settled into the year's routines, and that you are successfully navigating all the links, schedules, and plans for your online learning. The first month can feel a bit like a long journey where you are just trying to sort out the best way to go, but the good news is that through October and onward, you now have the skills and knowledge that will allow you to journey through the remainder of the year successfully!

Having explored and conquered, you should feel a sense of accomplishment and a knowledge that you can do hard things. This is called "grit," and developing this trait is an important part of learning and growing. Even as an adult, I am learning new things each day! It's OK to fail and try again. In fact, it is an essential part of life. I would like to share this quote with you:

We avoid the things that we're afraid of because we think there will be dire consequences if we confront them. But the truly dire consequences in our lives come from avoiding things that we need to learn about or discover. - Shakti Gawain

Friends, as you continue to learn and grow over the course of this year, never forget that failure is part of the process and that our best learning opportunities come in times of challenge and difficulty. May the road ahead be challenging but rewarding, and please let me or your teachers know if there is any way we can support you along the way. -Mrs. Kartik
